Medeco's Array of Options

ONE NAME ASSURES YOUR SECURITY

medeco
ASDA RELBY

Medeco means security. This requires constant innovation to create products that conveniently and effectively support efforts to protect facilities. We think about security so that you don't have to.

To assist in understanding the array of options available, a new brochure is available focusing on specific security issues or needs and highlighting the options that most appropriately solve these needs. More detailed information available on all of the options. Click on the image to view the Medeco array of solutions. To order packs of 25 brochures call Medeco Customer Service at 1-800-839-3157 and ask for LT-922118-25 Rev A.

E-Cylinder Spotlight

See New E-Cylinders at ALOA

Medeco's new E-Cylinder platforms merge the flexibility of electronics proven mechanical technologies—all in a retrofit cylinder. Three exciting new product lines—Logic, Hybrid Key, and Hybrid Cylinder—offer end-audit trails, custom access schedules, and the ability to quickly add or remove a key from system. And, unlike other stand-alone or access control products, Medeco Cylinders install in a matter of minutes without any wiring, door or related hardware. Learn more by calling 800-839-3157, visit Medeco at ALOA, Booth #304.

Arrow Spotlight

Arrow Offers FREE Marketing Tools

Arrow has created an application online that allows dealers to customize their own marketing pieces without any graphic design training. Items can be customized to both your target market and to include your own information, such as name and address. Currently there are two different direct pieces online that can be changed to fit a variety of different markets. Additional marketing pieces will be added on a regular basis. Please visit http://www.arrowlock.com/free_marketing_tools/ for an online tutorial on how this new service works.
